Jacksonville Merchants Accuse Pair Arrested in St. Louis. (By Associated Press.)

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Feb. 1.-Dep uty Sheriff Vinsant left yesterday for Louis with a requisition paper fo Mrs. Townsend and her daughter. Miss. Armstrong, who have been victimizing the people of this city for the last three weeks. They obtained goods from merchants on trial, to be returned if not satisfactory, but invariably kept the articles and never paid for them.

It is thought that the women were decoys for crooks who infested the city at the time of the prize fight. Three men were with the women and disappeared with them. The women are under arrest in St. Louis, but will fight against extradition.
